

EDDIES LIL' HOMIES – EPISODE I YOINKS

When the kids fall under the spell of Yoinks, a hand-held computer game from the olden days that Tal found in the hard rubbish, it's up to Eddie and Junior to try and rescue them – before they all become 'Yoinkified'!

Filmmaker: Eddie Betts
Duration: 12 mins

NOONGAR BEDTIME STORIES - KODJ

Ivy and Steven meet up with Uncle Koodah to learn how to make a "kodj" (traditional axe) using science. A kodj is very important to them as their grandmother comes from a town called "Kojonup" meaning "place of kodj" and it represents their traditional homelands.

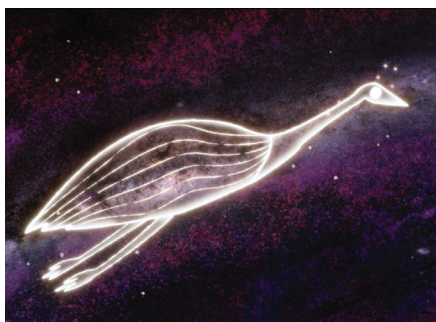

Filmmaker: Brooke Collard
Duration: 6 mins

CRAITBUL – A JOURNEY ACROSS BOANDIK COUNTRY

Craitbul is a Creation Story of the Boandik people of the South-East of South Australia and describes in story form the eruptions of the volcanoes in the Berrin (Mount Gambier) region, which were witnessed by the Boandik ancestors.

Filmmaker: Aunty Michelle Jacquelin-Furr
Duration: 7 mins

WIRADJURI STAR DREAMING

Since the beginning of time, the Wiradjuri have looked to the stars for guidance. The stars are a map for life. They show us when and where to hunt, and how to find our way home. Wiradjuri Elder and cultural knowledge holder Doug Sutherland takes us on a tour through the stars as seen by Wiradjuri people for the last 60,000 years.

Filmmaker: Jack Steele
Duration: 5 mins

BARANI

Barani is a bittersweet narrative set in Warrane (Sydney Cove) 500 years ago, juxtaposing humanity's current existence in the Anthropocene with a time of harmony between humans and nature. The story, rich in historical and cultural value, prompts audiences to reconsider the history of the land under their feet.

Filmmaker: Jake Duczynski
Duration: 7 mins

KUMARANGK – THE HINDMARSH ISLAND BRIDGE

In the 1980's, developers proposed a bridge to Kumarangk (Hindmarsh Island) starting a decade long fight against the ensuing desecration of a sacred site for the Ngarrindjeri women of South Australia. While the story was often national news fodder for newspapers and nightly news, the women and their legacy has largely been forgotten, except by Ngarrindjeri People.

Filmmaker: Josh Trevorrow
Duration: 8 mins