

Nunga Screen 2026 Terms and Conditions

Thank you for your support of this year's Nunga Screen program. Your purchase directly supports Nunga Screen, the First Nations filmmakers featured in this year's program, and future First Nations creative works and initiatives through the Country Arts Foundation.

Nunga Screen Corporate & Sponsorship Package

As part of your purchase of a Corporate or Sponsorship package, you agree to:

- access the program via the provided customised link during the viewing period.
- share your personalised link only within your workplace. You may share the link internally with team leaders or individual staff at your discretion.
- purchase the program tier that best represents the size of your organisation and number of employees.
- acknowledge Country Arts SA in all in house promotional materials.

You shall not:

- claim or imply that you or your organisation is the rights holder of Nunga Screen or any of the contained films.
- reproduce the program or any individual film in full or part for any purpose.
- resell or profit from any screening of Nunga Screen.
- redistribute the link to a third party outside your organisation.

Misuse of your link may result in your access to the films being revoked.

This is a digital product available to stream via Vimeo and is not refundable. Please ensure you have a stable, working internet connection to access the program before purchasing.

Nunga Screen Public Package

As part of your purchase of a Public Package, you agree to:

- only screen the film at the nominated venue on the date/s specified on your booking form or by email.
- acknowledge Country Arts SA in all in house promotional materials.
- delete downloaded film files within 14 days following your screening.
- not charge for admission to screenings or associated events.
- complete and return an evaluation form, including attendances, following your screening.

You shall not:

- claim or imply that you or your organisation is the rights holder of Nunga Screen or any of the contained films.
- reproduce the program or any individual film in full or part for any purpose.
- resell or profit from any screening of Nunga Screen.
- redistribute the film files to a third party.

Listings for screenings cannot be made on the Country Arts SA website for bookings that are made less than four (4) weeks prior to your screening date.

Indigenous Cultural Intellectual Property (ICIP)

All works of art created by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists embody ICIP. These belong to the Artists and relevant members of their language group and clan and with permission given specifically to them by associated clans. This ICIP must not be reused, republished or rebroadcast without the express and prior written permission of the Artist or a nominated representative acting on their behalf.

Data Privacy

Your data will be handled in accordance with Country Arts SA's Privacy Policy.

Organisations that host Nunga Screen may be acknowledged by name as part of Country Arts SA and the Country Arts Foundation's reporting. Sponsors will be publicly acknowledged on Country Arts SA's website and may also appear on the film. Public screenings can be posted on the Country Arts SA website to promote your screening.
