

NUNGA SCREEN

2026 PROGRAM

RED DIRT RIDERS

Rough and ready, fast and furious – a bunch of cheeky off-road Red Dirt Riders from Western Australia's remote Pilbara Region show you a thing or two about riding and share stories about their world.

Filmmaker: Tyson Mowarin
Duration: 14 mins

MAKING A PULGI

Join Narungga and Ngarrindjeri artist Cedric Varcoe as he shares Ngarrindjeri culture through the building of a traditional shelter, a Pulgi, at the Goolwa wharf.

Filmmaker: Cedric Varcoe
Duration: 4 mins

THE SECRET

A raw and intimate examination of the pressure and shame placed on women, how the choices we make for ourselves and our bodies are always under assault, but despite everything we are not alone.

Filmmaker: Lilla Berry
Duration: 12 mins

THE FIX IT MAN AND THE FIX IT WOOMAN

A gentle, funny tale of love and connection is built under the bright lights of Alice Springs, as two soft sculptures find each other through discovering a shared talent. Featuring artwork by Yarrenyty Artere Artists.

Filmmaker: Rhonda Sharpe & Courtney Collins
Duration: 8 mins

KAL TJITI TRAVELLERS – STUCK IN THE CITY

Through workshops facilitated by hip hop group DEM MOB, students at Fregon Anangu School wrote and created this music video for their song, "Stuck In The City". The song expresses their longing for home after spending time in the city.

Filmmaker: Sophie Wallace and Fregon Anangu School
Duration: 4 mins

FALSE NARRATIVE

When a father and businessman is falsely accused of heinous crimes online, he must survive a night of escalating terror as a vigilante descends on his home, putting him and his family at risk.

Filmmaker: Travis Akbar
Duration: 10 mins

ANANGU WAY

Keenan, a Noongar and Spinifex man, drives 10 hours from Perth to Cundeelee to spend a week on Country with his father Lydon. Together they make a woomera (a traditional artefact) and Keenan learns more about his culture and family.

Filmmaker: Tace Stevens
Duration: 12 mins

BLAKPRINT FOR SUCCESS

Follow an ancestral journey from forced eviction to returning home, coming back to a place that has changed so much but still has an ancient energy. Explore the importance of sharing cultural practices and stories from lived experiences.

Filmmaker: Elijah Bravington
Duration: 10 mins

CATCHIN' MUMOO

When a Great White Pointer shark keeps taking a fisherman's catch, his 7-year-old son Stevo takes it upon himself to try and fix the problem to support his family. When tragedy strikes, fate takes an unexpected turn.

Filmmaker: Dylan Coleman
Duration: 11 mins